BY OWNER-15 nors fruit ranch. Oliver WOLLD YOU SELL YOUR VALLEY LAND WOLLD VOU SELL YOUR VALLEY LAND
If you not your price? Of course, you would. But we chan't want to sold it for you. What we sell is for those who have to you will not those who would sell if they were uffered enough. Our object is to make friends of these we sell to funtace of their was sell to funtace of their was sell to funtace of their was sell to instance. We do not your to sell higher prised and here friends business is the fature. We do not your to extend higher prised hand, we want to set them off of the market, so that we can get the nest price for our own hand later.

Examined that we are one of the heaviest and owners in the valley, and are not selling our over own hand four are selling the other fellow's, Why? Because we can sell the other fellow's hand for less than we would take for our sen. Perhams also, we are not quite us hard up. We believe these very selling the outer fellow's hand for less than we would take for our sen. Perhams also, we are not guite us hard up. We believe these their fellow's had then selling the other fellow's had then selling the other fellow's had then selling the which is assisted reason that we would rather selling one has to be marifileed to beget the meremore we want it to be the other fellow, find than sure sen.

About the Big Dam.

Cryes Curtis, the man who has been waking Philadelphia up lately, was a guest of El Fano for half an hour last evening, on route to California with his familis. Mr. Curtis, who was in his private car, was met at the union station by president at B. Orndorff, of the chamber of commerce, and Chaborie Adamys. Joe Wight and A. W. Reeves, of the reception committee. He was invited to stop over and visit El Paso, but said he could not arrange his thermry at the time so he could make the cton.

The publisher of the Saturday Evel ning Post, the Ladier Home Journal and the Fhiladelphia Daily Ledger appeared suprised at the reception tendered him and said to the committee that he was not only surprised, but delighted. He said he visited fil Paso I yours ago, but was not particularly impressed with the place. Mr. Orndorff told him of the growth almost the file of the miles of electric street railway and good street paying, of the great Elenham Butte dam and of other things that are heighing to make Ill Fano great. Mr. Curtis was surprised to learn of Elephant Burte dam and expressed considerable interest in the big irrigation project.
